501 Screen Refresh Enhancements

The following software modification will be in production on March 17, 1999:

MAIN-FACS has modified the software for the transaction entry screens. In the past, there were instances when the screen appeared to have been refreshed but the coding block elements of the prior transaction appeared on the accounting event record. The code has been modified to correct this condition.